

School	Health Programs Offered
Virginia State University	AAS degree in Nursing,(RN licensure prep)
University of Richmond	Pre-health concentration for medical professional school – MD/PhD
Virginia Union University	BS degrees in Natural & Physical Sciences: MARC (Minority Access to Research Careers) programs increases number of minorities continuing studies in MD and PHD programs
Virginia Commonwealth University	Full spectrum of health, allied health , medical and PhD degrees
John Tyler Community College	AS General Studies (Science) for transfer into full spectrum of health, allied health and medical degrees AS in General Studies, Pre-BSN AAS Nursing (RN Licensure prep) AAS Funeral Services AAS EMS – Paramedic Career Studies Certificates: Adult Home Administration; EMS-Intermediate; EMS-Advanced EMT Nurse Aide
J. Sergeant Reynolds Community College	Career Studies Certificate (CSC) programs: --Health Records; Dental Assisting; Pharmacy Tech; Nursing AAS Degrees: --Dental Technology; Emergency Medical Services; Medical Laboratory Tech; Nursing (RN licensure prep); Respiratory Therapy; Opticanny (Vision Technology)
Richard Bland College	AAS degree programs in coordination with SRMC Nursing and Allied Health Profession Schools
CCWA (Community College Workforce Alliance) – partnership between J.S. Reynolds & John Tyler CC's.	Classroom-based programs: Pharmacy Technician, EKG Technician; Medical Billing and Coding; Electronic Health Record Management; Clinical Medical Assistant; Phlebotomy Online program: Medical Transcription
Southside Regional Medical Center Professional Schools	Professional Certificate and Degree programs in Nursing ((RN licensure prep); Radiation Services, Radiation Technology and Diagnostic Medical Sonography AAS Degrees conferred in coordination with Richard Bland.
Bon Secours	Memorial School of Nursing: Nursing Diploma (RN licensure prep); BS degree in Nursing; On-line RN to BSN program St. Mary's Hospital School of Medical Imaging, diploma program